Dear Prime Minister

I am writing to tell you I would like to make a change to refugee lives. Their living conditions are not ok.

First of all, I would like to make a difference to the shelter that we give them because they do not have anywhere to live since they fled their war-torn country. We have houses and other buildings and they have metal and junk. Perhaps we could give them some money or a place to live. However, I appreciate that we may not be able to afford it so we could start a fundraiser.

Secondly, I think these suffering refugees should have an opportunity to make a living in our country. Besides they have made a long journey to get a junk pile and I think they should be welcomed with warm and friendly hands. We are a nation of welcoming refugees.

Next, I would like to make a change to their food since they don't have enough. They should get free meals everyday. We could buy them food from shops or they could be welcome to come and buy their own with the money we get them from the fundraiser.

I appreciate you listening to these points and hope you consider these changes for the refugee lives.

Thank you.

Yours sincerely

Mitzi.
